(Nuddy) Myrethia Jackson

Myrethia Jackson was born on January 23, 1940, in Bakcaw, Arkansas. She was the second child born to proud parents Ira and Theola Johnson. The family moved to Richmond, California in 1947 where she spent her childhood and early adulthood years.

Myrethia received her early education through the Richmond Unified School District and graduated from Richmond High School. She accepted Christ at an early age where she was baptized at Christian Home Missionary Baptist Church. She later moved her membership to Pilgrim Rest Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. C.E. Richardson.

Myrethia united in holy matrimony with Wilbert Brown and from this union one daughter was born; Carmen Brown. In 1994 she united with Alphonce Jackson and from this union a son was born; Jeremy Jackson.

She began her career with Fairchild Electronics in Marin County and later at American Baptist Bible College until her health failed her.

Myrethia was a loving devoted mother, wife, grandmother and great grandmother who was very proud of her family. She was always there for her family and friends; especially the seniors and children. She was a very good cook and decorator. She loved to entertain and feed you.

She would browse through cookbooks and magazines to get new recipes, then cook and feed you as long as you would sit there and "eat". She was a member of the "Kemp" family gospel choir, Manual Baten & the Kemp Generation. She enjoyed traveling with the choir going to different cities to sing. She truly loved the Lord, and will be truly missed.

Preceeding her in death: parents Ira & Theola Johnson, brothers Alvernon & Earnest (Gene) Johnson, nephew Steven Johnson and Keisha Bolton. Mother-in-law: Idella Jackson. Sister-in-law: Ruby Bell, & Brothers-in-law: Fred Jackson & Sam Jackson.

Myrethia leaves to cherish her memory: her husband Alphonce Jackson, daughter Carmen Brown (Calvin), son Jeremy Jackson (Mona), brother Ivy (duke) Johnson (Patricia), sister Eloise Walthall (Hershell). Grandchildren: Nicole Smith, Andre Smith, and Monet Smith. Great grandchildren: Deshawn and Heaven. Brothers-in- law: Charles Jackson (Delores), Leo Jackson (Cassandra), & Lonnie Ray Jackson (Gwen). Sisters- in-law: LaVonne Clark, Elaine Foster (Paul) & Dorothy Fox (Glen).

u dearly, In death we love you still. In our Heart we e our Heart to lose you, but you didn't go alone A part u the day God took you Home.
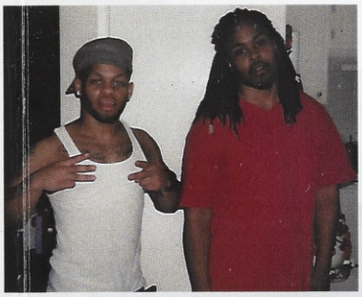
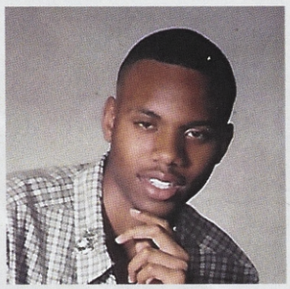
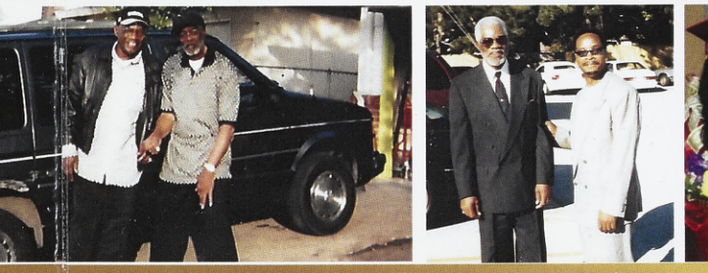
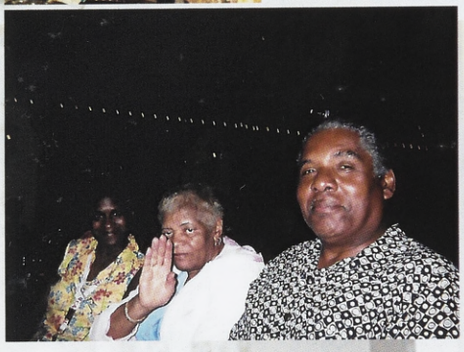
MISS YOU YOUR FAMILY







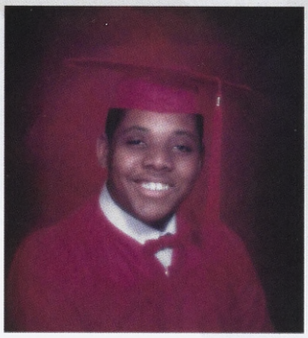


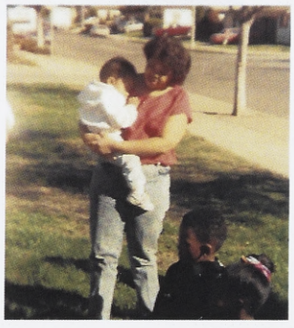
Farewell My Love

To my husband, the love of my life, I am so glad that you made me your wife. You loved me with all of your heart keeping your marriage vow "until death do us part." Now I am gone and you are left to carry on. Keep the family together as I tried to do, as they will need your support to get through. You cared for me as best as you could, doing the little things as not many would. You are the epitome of a good man who stayed by my side as you held my hand. One day God will call you home too and I will be waiting with my arms wide open for you. Please don't be sad, remember the good times that we had. Please don't cry, just "say goodbye". For I am ready to meet my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, looking back is something I wouldn't think about twice.

A Mother's Grandmother's Love

My children and my grandchildren please know that I will never leave you because I love you so. For I will always be there to guide you through the perils of life, and those lonely days of misery and strife. Remember to love each other as I have loved each of you. Treat each other with loving care and remember that I will always be there. Although the flesh is gone, my spirit will forever live on. I know that you will miss me but remember that this a road that you will also have to go through, so just be ready when God calls "YOU". Make him your number one man and remember that he can do what no other can. Don't cry and don't be sad, just look at the good life I had. For time on this earth shall be no more, I will see you again over on that other shore.





Psalm 116:7-9

Return unto thy rest, o my soul; for the Lord has dealt bountifully with thee. For thou hast delivered my soul from death, my eyes from tears, my feet from falling. I will walk before the Lord in the land of the living.

Expression of Appreciation

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair, Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so, we saw it there, Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much whatever the part. Whatever your pathway leads, may God be with you.
